

Eurovision 2016 Drinking Rules

CLUBS

- A performer switches from one language to another
- The song sounds like it's being sung by an insane stalker
- A country gives 12 points to one of its neighbours
- Any use of glitter, feathers or coloured confetti
- Any use of fireworks

HEARTS

- The word 'love' or 'heart'
- Any political statement
- A country gives the UK nil points
- Use of indigenous dress or instruments
- Lead singer points at the camera, reaches for the stars, or does similar one-armed gesture

DIAMONDS

- Any insult by Graham Norton (the BBC's commentator)
- A key change
- Any technical hitch
- A country that isn't in Europe appears
- Someone removes an item of clothing

SPADES

- Any innuendo
- Any nonsensical lyrics
- If you can't locate this country on a map
- Crazy/zany use of drums
- Any use of a wind machine